

BISBEE POST OFFICE HOLDS HIGH RANK IN ITS SAVINGS BRANCH

Fourteenth in Rank, June 30, in Gains for the preceding Month. Savings Depository
Growing Rapidly

All June records for postal deposits were eclipsed last month when a net gain of over $5,800,000 was rolled up, quadrupling the net increase for June, 1915. The gains were general throughout the country, notably in the smaller industrial centers. Postmasters attribute their increase to the country-wide prosperity of wage-earners and to the liberalizing postal saving legislation of May 18th last which removed the vexatious limit on deposits of $100 a month and increased the amount that may be accepted from a depositor to $1,000.

Bisbee ranks fourteenth in the cities of the country in the matter of gain in the postal saving department for the month of June. Bisbee's gain was $32,229. It follows immediately after St. Louis with $39,139. The other cities which rank Bisbee's gain in their order are Brooklyn, Detroit, Chicago, Boston, Pittsburgh, Butte, Cleveland, Buffalo, Milwaukee, Philadelphia, Portland, Oregon, Newark and St. Louis.

On June 30th, 7,501 post offices were accepting deposits in the United States, Alaska, Porto Rico and Hawaii. All but 854 of the depository offices were of the Presidential grade. The number of depositories approximated 603,000 with $88,000,000 standing to their credit. Of this sum, $72,000,000, or over four-fifths, were accumulated at the 448 offices having deposits of $20,000 and over two-thirds of all the deposits were in the 78 offices having more than $100,000 on deposit. Eight offices have passed the million dollar mark—New York, Brooklyn, Chicago, Boston, Detroit, Pittsburgh, San Francisco and Portland, Oregon—and these eight offices hold approximately 42 per cent of all deposits.

Use Coconut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain unperfumed coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulitified coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

DUSTIN FARNUM IN NEW ROLE AT ROYAL

"Ben Blair" is Paramount Offering at the Popular
Main St. Playhouse

Dustin Farnum, famous for his characterization of "The Virginian" on the legitimate stage some years ago, plays the part of Ben Blair in the Pallas feature of the same name. Farnum is at his best and the picture is one of the most celebrated that has been released by the Paramount Pictures corporation. "Ben Blair" will appear at the Royal for two days, today and tomorrow.

The story of the play is as follows: Scott Winthrop has to go west for his health. His wealthy father buys him a ranch and he takes his wife and little daughter Florence to live in the cattle country. The neighboring ranch is owned by John Rankin, a typical westerner. Rankin's wife, Jennie, had deserted him for Tom Blair, a former sweetheart.

Tom Blair is a heavy drinking rowdy. He comes home after a spree and finding Jennie in bed sick, shakes her so violently that she dies from the shock. Ben Blair, Jennie's boy, fearing for his life, eludes Tom, and seeking safety in his dog's dugout, escapes the fire started by Tom Blair to destroy the shack and its evidence.

The smoke of the fire against the sky brings Rankin and he takes little Ben home with him. Later Ben goes with Rankin to call on the Winthrops and meets Florence, who makes him her playmate. The two children grow up constant companions, riding to the roundups, the brandings and picnic-link together. The time comes when they no longer remain just playmates. Mrs. Winthrop has other ambitions for her daughter and these are realized when the Winthrops are called to New York by the death of Florence's grandfather. Florence quickly forgets about Ben in the busy whirl of society and becomes engaged to Sldwell, a society man.

Meanwhile Ben has been doing big things. Tom, returning, kills Rankin, and Ben, alone, pursues, and after a desperate running fight and spectacular struggle, captures Tom. Ben, reading of Florence's rumored engagement, comes to New York. He finds a changed Florence, but after many setbacks and a gun fight in a low resort where he finds dissipated Sldwell, he determinedly, in a truly western manner, forces Florence to a decision.

STONE RECIPIENT OF HONORS FROM HIS FELLOW WORKMEN

Popular Copper Queen Foreman is Guest of Honor at Monthly Meeting of C. Q. Bosses. Leaving Company

The Copper Queen foremen and bosses held their regular monthly meeting Sunday night at the Country club. The occasion was a farewell to Fred Stone, foreman of the Sacramento for the past several years, and who is compelled to leave the employ of the company by reason of his health.

Mr. Stone has been in the service of the company for 28 years, and his associates took this opportunity to express their regret at his departure, and to give him a substantial remembrance of the esteem in which he was held by them. He was presented with a gold watch, suitably engraved, together with a chain and Old Fellows' charm, a traveling bag and set by his fellow workers, and in addition to this he will be the recipient of a liberal pension in accordance with the Copper Queen Consolidated Mining company.

The heads of the various departments expressed their regret at losing one of their best-liked and conscientious associates. Mr. Stone came here from Tombstone about 28 years past, beginning employment with the Copper Queen, and has been serving in various capacities from miner to foreman during that period.

He has been noted for his industry, thrift and temperate habits and is acknowledged to be one of the best citizens of the district. He leaves the Copper Queen with an enviable record. Mr. Stone and his family will be a distinct loss to the community. It goes without saying that they will carry with them to their new home the sincere good wishes of their numerous friends. They will take up their residence in Los Angeles, leaving here about August 8.

BODY OF MAN LONG CLAIMED BY DESERT FOUND AT KINGMAN

Two Keys Stamped "K-100" and Brass Tag "2826" is Found on Body, Torn by Hungry Coyotes

(By Review Leased Wire.)

KINGMAN, July 31.—The body of a man—tall, red headed, about 30 years old and weighing about 175 pounds—was found yesterday by Geo. Kayser, a cowboy, on the desert 20 miles northwest of Kingman. The victim of the desert had evidently perished more than a month ago.

Beside the body was found two keys stamped "K-100" and a brass tag bearing the number "2826". Coyotes had largely devoured the body.

WOMAN ATTEMPTS TO COMMIT SUICIDE BUT ACT IS FRUSTRATED

Sad Case is Unearthed in Bisbee, When Mrs. Stanley Champaign is Prevented From Dying

One of the saddest near-tragedies to crop out of Bisbee's humdrum life came to life yesterday morning when Mrs. Stanley Champaign, who has resided at 95 A Naco Road for a month or so, returned to her home from the county hospital where she had been taken the day before. The woman, it is understood, will be taken to Tombstone today and will be tried for insanity.

Last Friday Mrs. Champaign attempted to commit suicide by wrapping a chloroform-saturated rag around her head. This failed with the arrival of help. The next day officers took the woman to the county hospital at Douglas. There she declared she would never stay there and threatened to commit suicide, "once given the chance. She even declared to officers that she had a gun in her room with which to do the work.

This story was investigated and found to be true. Yesterday morning Mrs. Champaign returned to Bisbee after being away from the hospital since the afternoon of Sunday. She was again placed in custody and this time will be taken to Tombstone.

Mrs. Champaign has a three months old baby. The husband of the woman, who works in the smelters at Douglas, was notified of the affair and refused to have anything to do with the case. He denied that he was the father of the baby. The mother told one of the officers the baby was born in Tucson. Other stories appear to indicate the baby was born in St. Louis. The officers are wondering whether the child belongs to Mrs. Champaign or not.

All who have worked on the case think the woman is demented and particularly so along the lines of suicide. Her one attempt and her declarations that she will succeed in them lead only to such a conclusion over the officers. If the woman is adjudged insane they expect to have the baby placed in some one's care and endeavor to see if the husband will not make some provision for its upkeep.

pany, Eighth Massachusetts Infantry, to investigate reports from Robert Wood and James B. Dean, United States customs inspector, that bandits pursued by Mexican troops, had crossed the border in search of refuge. Reaching an adobe hut, five miles below Fort Hancock in which the bandits were hiding, the cavalrymen, together with the two customs inspectors, surrounded it and adjacent out-houses.

Pursue in Mexico.
The Mexicans recrossed the Rio Grande and took up the trail of the bandits that had fled into the desert. Dean, who crossed with them to the Mexican side, said that the Mexican commander apparently was making every effort to capture the fugitives.

Defectors Crossed to U. S.
When it seemed to Dean that American force might be inadequate, they called upon Captain Marulla, who immediately, with about ten men, crossed to the American side of the river and marched to the huts.

The approach of the Mexican detachment from the rear surprised the Americans, who did not know whether to regard them as friend or foes.

They were reassured shortly, however, by the Mexicans themselves, and by Dean, who was guiding them.
